

J.U.T.L.A.N.D. J.O.L.L.I.E.S.

This is Jutland Jollies #15, a Glub Blub Publication, dedicated to Postal Diplomacy and the converting of Dave Francis from socialism. There are no game openings available. Subs are 10 for $1.00 in either money order or cash (thank you, Dan).

JJ hereby announces a change in our publishing policy for the future. Due to a communications problem between the editors (ie; we'll be living 15 miles apart come September), and due to a desire to produce a Dippyzine without errors (except spelling or grammar), and due to a desire to maybe even print more stuff aside from moves--JJ will be published once every complete game year after the winter move. The games will be played in Wells/Zelazny style by letter, using either a two or three-week deadline depending on the majority choice of players in each game. (So let us know what you want.)

Enough. This game is (and so are the rest of them) pubbed by:

The Canadian election campaign continues its dizzy pace. Numerous Tory candidates are calling Prime Minister Trudeau a socialist, basing their observations upon his past writings, while the leader of the socialists (NDP) calls him Canada's Goldwater. A TV debate between the party leaders was a flop; it turned out to be a boring question and answer period. If anyone won, it was the socialists, since they pushed hard with their, to quote Marshall McLuhan "19th century happiness platform". They shaded their facts too. It's easy to be irresponsible when you admit you can't win power--as the socialists have done.

JJ Game # 2 (1967 AW)

Postponement

Partly because Dave Lebling's issue #14 has been lost in the mails (apparently--dumb post office), and partly to bring this game into line with the others, the Spring, 1904 moves are due Thursday, 4 July, 1968. Let me know what sort of deadlines you prefer.

Note Turk Army Constantinople was removed last turn. I forgot to type it.

We feel sorrow for America. She bears the burdens created by leading and running half a world, and yet she must carry the additional strain of continual tragedy at home. Many other countries would have cracked by now.

Last issue we ran the line "LBJ for President". It was a compromise between the editors, for Johnson is the second choice of both Nelson and Lake. The former is a Rockefeller supporter, the latter was a Robert Kennedy supporter.

JJ Team Game #1 (Fall 1905)

Gentlemen, this round is slightly unbelievable. The French Fleet Brest retreats to Gascony and the Russian Fleet Bulgaria is virtually annihilated. A total of 13 supply centres changed hands, undoubtedly a new record. (By the way, "Scarborough players, a recent meeting of the Politbureau decided, and I quote, "their play has been decidedly unsatisfactory". A motion was passed which stated, and I quote, "that they shape up or be shipped out". Ever been to Elliot Lake in the winter, gang?)

ENGLAND: Lon, Liberpool, Edi, Nwy, Spa, Bre 2 Remove Three (!)

ITALY: 3 home, Tun, Por, Gre, Spa 5 Remove One

TURKEY: Ank, Smy, Seb, Bul, Rum, 3 No change

AUSTRIA: Tyr, Tun 1 No change

RUSSIA: 4 home, Bul, Ran, Swe, Den, Bud, Con, Vie, Ser, Tri, Gre, Nwym, Edi, Ank 14 Build three

Harley only has room for three builds. For DEADLINE see bottom last page.

A FILLER REVIEW: Three stf movies have come to TO (that's Toronto, pronounced Tarawna) lately--Space Odyssey 2001; The Power, and Planet of the Apes. 2001 is a...ah...fascinating experience, which I'm not sure I enjoyed or understood. But definitely see it. The Power, a George Pal production, redemes the man for Atlantis, and is good solid entertainment besides. Planet of the Apes is one of the worst stf I've ever seen. It is not recommended. --DJN

Winter and Spring orders are due THURSDAY, 4 JULY, 1968

Press Releases:

St. Petersburg: Well, Germany, a little late perhaps, but I finally captured the Sweden that you promised me a long time ago and then broke your promise! Now I'll see if I can stir any trouble behind your lines.

Constantinople: The streets of the city are thronged by the thousands of angry demonstrators demanding the immediate withdrawal of the German Imperial Army from Galicia. The German Embassy was attacked by university students. No German nationals were injured. One student was shot by a German Marine. Several other students were injured by stones and broken glass.

Constantinople: The Government has not made a statement on the Galician affair. Experts believe the Sultan does not ~~want~~ a war with Europe's most powerful State. A confrontation would be avoided by a German withdrawal from Galicia and a German pledge of continued neutrality in the Russo-Turkish War.

Adrianople: At the request of the Austrian Government the Ottoman Empire has entered into a state of hostilities with the Italian Empire. The first act of the Ottoman Armed Forces was to completely annihilate the Italian occupation forces in Greece. Also, Turkish naval action forced the Italian commander to scuttle the Italian First Battle Squadron.

At the request of the Bey of Tunis, the Ottoman First Battle Fleet is steaming to Africa. Italian opposition is expected to be light. Apparently Italian oppressions alienated the Tunisians.

Athens: It seems several of the sunken Italian warships are salvageable. The Ministry of the Navy claims that the former Italian BB's, PASTA (8-12" & 16-5") and PARMESAN (8-11" & 16-5"), the CA LASAGNE (4-9" & 8-6"), and the CL's GNOCHI, VERMICELLI, RAVIOLI, and PIZZA will be reconditioned and will serve with the Ottoman Navy.

Geneva: Hopefully they'll get a change of name too.

COMMENT: The killing of RFK was a, literally, shocking event. (Unlike his brothers, whom I admire(d), he was the Democrat's version of Nixon to me--interestingly enough, they both served McCarthy--thus my emotional response to the murder was limited. But it shocked.)

Free men settle their differences among themselves by votes, compromise, persuasion, deals, pay-offs, and a basic acceptance by all concerned that certain limits are set to the means of competition.

A physical response--nausea--came when hundreds, and perhaps thousands of dipsticks rushed into print and tried to use the murder to prove their special points. It was especially irritating to read Canadian and European newsmen preaching two basic points: that America is an "unbelievably violent land", and that "a resort to violence is an act of despair" which rises from "inequality and injustice" in America.

Let's put it in perspective: America's willful murder rate is 4.8 per 100,000 people, higher than India's 3.1 but lower than Luxembourg's 6.5 (1964 base statistics). By the above reasoning, the Lux have more injustice and inequality than America, and the US more than India . . .

Secondly, many or most countries are more violent than America. Willful murder rates in the 30's per 100,000 are common in the world. More important, consider the US colour riots, which are signs of hope rather than despair. Above all, consider how few have died in these riots--which are headlined to the world as so terrible. Then consider the death toll in similar colour/culture conflicts in Nigeria, India, Pakistan, Burma, Indonesia . . .

Thirdly, taking non-murder violence as reflected in the crime statistics, compare these rates for sexual offenses: the US is 11.6 per 100,000, the UK 50.2, Canada 45.4, and so on. (1965 base rates)

America's problems should be viewed in the proper perspective, without the country having to submit to continual hate/guilt campaigns directed at it.

Russian Fleet Rumania must retreat to Black Sea or Sebastopol.
(Question: Was Charles move legal? Can F Rum supp a naval assault on the south coast of Bulgaria? We can't remember. It was ~~but~~ anyway of course, but can someone supply the answer in case it happens again.) The Italian Army Munich must retreat to Burgundy or die. If possible, send in retreats, builds and spring moves together.

Steve Hueston has resigned as Germany. First player to send in moves for spring gets the position. Cost will be one dollar with his fall moves. Sorry to see you go, Steve.

KIM'S KORNER

JOHN BOARDMAN, 592 16th Street, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11218. Thanks for the brief but informative article on the forthcoming Canadian elections in JJ #14.

We hear a lot about Pierre Trudeau down here, and the New York Times seems to be very favorably impressed by his policies and style. But Tories who come out for a guaranteed annual income are very peculiar critters by American standards; here it is assumed that anyone who is poor is too lazy to work to be richer. Your highly successful family allowance plan is still miles too radical for an American Congress to accept. ((Family allowance is stupid. It goes to the guy earning a million and to the guy earning $2,000. It should only go to those who need it--- or are you backing the rich again, John?)) There once was a New Republic columnist who spoofed the red-baiting of the rest of the press by citing Canada's social welfare program and Socialistic bloc in Parliament as proof that the real Foreign Danger lies not in Moscow or in Peking, but in Ottawa. ((That's true. We want the Ohio back.))

I expect that the Canadian election returns will be broadcast on WNYC, as they have been in previous years. WNYC is the city-owned station; this socialistic enterprise will carry the news that the "free enterprise" stations won't touch. So much for free enterprise better serving the public interest. ((The public interest is defined as what the public want. Show me WNYC's rating on our election night compared to private stations, then maybe we can discuss the issue again.))

Still, even a Canadian Tory would be regarded as a liberal if not a radical on the American political scene. How many Republicans or even Democrats, in this country would advocate selling wheat to China, or a guaranteed annual income? ((Man, we'll not only sell wheat to China, but guns to the U.S. for use in Vietnam. I presume you agree with that policy too? In fact, we believe Canada should sell anything to anybody as long as they pay for it with hard cash.)) And hard-bitten professional anti-communists from Eastern Europe constitute a larger part of the Canadian than of the U. S. population. I feel that, in a large number of important political and economic considerations, we see in Canada's present our future. ((What? Is California seceding?))
